Hi Jarvis...

This is the law clerk I introduced you to on James Street. I'm encouraging Carl to "knock" on your door. You will only hear wonderful things about this fellow's talents. Literally, I've never met a more gifted law clerk in my 15 years of practice. His research skills are incredible. I asked him about a question on equitable remedies in Small Claims Court and he put a memo together in about two hours plus cases. He's the kind of guy you would want helping you at The Grand Library at Osgoode. He reminds me of a British Barrister i.e. studious, academic and, at all times, very polite and diplomatic.

I gave him a banker box of material for a case summary in a complicated AB file. I should show you the spread sheet he produced with a summary of the meds on file. In one day, he digested and then typed up a 50 page case summary report.

I've never seen anyone like him. He is the real deal.

I took him on a discovery and his report (produced the same day) was better than most lawyers.

I am not kidding when I sing his praises to the stars. YOU HAVE GOT TO MEET WITH CARL.

Best Regards...Steve
